

P-NP Problem and Complexity in Computer Algebra

Dima Grigoriev

Abstract. A survey on the complexity of basic problems of symbolic computations is supposed to be given. We discuss polynomial factoring, solving systems of polynomial equations, systems of polynomial inequalities, quantifier elimination, finding connected components. An importance of choosing an appropriate language for designing algorithms is underlined.

Dima Grigoriev
Centre National de Recherches Scientifiques Lille, France
e-mail: dima.grigoryev@gmail.com